

Autumn in the country

The first days of November we went to the country:

The sky was cloudy, it was a little cold and the wind blew

The teacher said that the country is falling asleep

It's true: the moles have dug the underground home.

